LE CONQUET

DAY TRIPS.

Looking to escape the city for a while ?

HEADING TO LE CONQUET

A charming fishing port with narrow streets and salty air, Le Conquet charms with its authenticity. Lunch with a sea view, a seaside stroll, peaceful atmosphere: a Breton stopover facing the open sea.

HEADING TO CROZON

The very essence of wild beauty, the Crozon peninsula impresses with its cliffs, wind-swept beaches and breathtaking views. Hiking, seaside breaks, hidden coves: an immersion in rugged, untamed Brittany.

CROZON

HEADING TO THE ABERS

Between sea-bound rivers, hidden harbors, and ever-changing light, the Abers reveal a peaceful and preserved side of Brittany. A crossing to Île Vierge, lunch by the water, soft and soothing scenery: a land that invites you to slow down.
